Harvest - 2015

We began our harvest by picking our Pinot Gris, and the Pinot Noir will come off next week. We are fortunate that our Half Moon Bay vineyard will yield us some fruit which was not hit by the late May frost; however, most of our South Bay vineyard did not survive the cold. If the warm days hang on we may harvest some Merlot.

Join us to celebrate the arrival of Fall and the countdown to harvest.

Coming Releases

We are bottling our 2013 Merlot and will let you know when it will be ready for sale. The 2012 was a great hit and sold out this season. The '13 is looking very promising with the aroma of cherry and tasting of blackberries and vanilla with a hint of chocolate and spice. A rare find in the County, this 100% estate grown Merlot will sell out quickly.

Winery Hours

We will stay open daily until Thanksgiving Monday. From there until Christmas we will be open weekends only or by appointment.
