South Bay
U.C.W.

U.C.W. met at the South Bay United Church hall on Wednesday, November 13th at 1:30 p.m.

Maureen Rudd occupies the president's chair in the absence of Sandra Emlaw. She opened the meeting with a short narrative of how God works in mysterious ways.

Following were our theme hymn, purpose and Lord's Prayer.

Joyce Minaker's devotional was based on Chapter 3 of Ecclesiastes. We remember our soldiers on Remembrance Day, November 11. When the men were gone the women filled in to do their jobs. Everyone was changed because of the war. Joyce closed with a prayer.

Some interesting themes were introduced for Show and Tell for roll call: a book of home remedies; a sample of panned gold; a keepsake from granddaughter; a heritage mother's ring passed down; relating about a signpost that informs travelers how far from home people are in Alaska.

Twenty-one sick calls were made.

We would like to thank Merle Woodley for her donation of lovely cups and saucers to our church.

Carol Branscombe read the minutes of the October meeting.

Joyce Minaker reported our finances.

Nora Parker stated that fifteen shoe boxes were filled and returned.

We received a thank you from Camp Quin-Mo-Lac for our donation.

The offering was received and dedicated.

Our U.C.W. is to cater a supper for 40 people from presbytery on the 20th.

Skip McCormack and Nora Parker volunteered to buy gifts for two children for Christmas.

We are giving money donations to Hospice, the Hospital Foundation, Alternatives for Women, the South Marysburgh Mirror and disaster victims in the Philippines.

Karen Guernsey read an article dealing with the food bank for program.

Our meeting closed with our U.C.W. prayer.

The ladies were treated to a delicious lunch served by Nora and Carol, and were thanked by Joyce.
