Fair Board Names 2022 Citizens of the Year

The Milford Fair Board has a long tradition of recognizing people in the community of South Marysburgh with the "Citizen of the Year" award. It recognizes those who volunteer in the community, are honest and trustworthy, follows rules and laws, respects the rights of others, are compassionate, good neighbours, and take responsibility for their actions. The 2022 South Marysburgh Citizens of the Year were Barbara McConnell for her years of volunteer leadership on the PEC Memorial Hospital Foundation Board and as publisher of The Mirror; Peter Minaker for his long service as a volunteer member of the South Marysburgh Fire Department and Larry MacDonald for his service as the organizer of the fair parade since 2010.
