

The South Marysburgh Mirror

November 2022

Published for Residents, Businesses and Visitors since 1985

Scarecrow Leon McConnell helps Cameron, son of Kelly and David Miller, and Corinsa, daughter of Hollie and Pete Graham, all of South Bay, find the Haunted Shed clues. – Mirror photo

Spooky Hallowe'en Fun Earns Top Marks from the Experts – the Kids

There was a steady stream of robots, spidermen and princesses Sunday night at the Milford Haunted Shed that challenged these wee Hallowe'eners, with help from their parents, to solve clues and escape the scary haunted shed to earn a prize bag of Hallowe'en treats.

Each child, no matter the result of their clue sleuthing earned the treats.

Sponsored by the South Marysburgh Recreation Board, the venue for this year's event moved to The Shed at the Milford Fair grounds.

Thirty-five children from ages 3 to 12 participated. More photos on page 3.

South Marysburgh Returns John Hirsch for Second Term to Prince Edward Council

October 24's municipal election results showed a win for Councillor John Hirsch as the majority of residents voted to re-elect him.

Mr. Hirsch will commence his second term in a council led by South Marysburgh resident, Mayor Steve Ferguson, who also won a second term of office.

Sharing a Childhood Passion for Aircraft Brings Two South Marysburgh Men Together to Get Their Hands Dirty

South Marysburgh residents Don Farrington and Peter Wollenberg outside the National Air Force Museum of Canada at Trenton.

Two South Bay residents who share a love of aircraft take a weekly journey to the National Air Force Museum of Canada (NAFMC) at Trenton to help a legion of volunteers, many with aircraft engineering backgrounds, bring back to life a piece of Canadian aviation history.

Peter Wollenberg and Don Farrington are avid aeronautical aficionados but for different reasons. Nonetheless, they've found a common purpose in helping to restore an iconic Second World War Lancaster Mark

(Continued on page 2)

Pause to Remember

11-11-11

Remembrance Day