

The Colours of Me

Words have colours!

Stubborn is grey
Stubborn is the starting over from scratch colour.
Scratch is blue.
though only a hue,
the colour of me.

Stubborn is also the colour of pregnant expectation,
pregnant in its dull winter-green and yellow.
- green, yellow, grey -
I realize,
it matters not!

Stubborn is the colour of hope
- a creamy smooth yellow - with brilliant blasts of sunbeams straining to push through the cracks.

Stubborn is the colour of promise
- a hesitant rust -
the promise of adventures yet to come..
Adventures in their various reds
of autumnal splendor.

Stubborn is the color of doing,
of perhaps getting things done,
of happy oblivion.

Take heart!

Stubborn is Me,
in all my colours.
Starting over from scratch.

Karen I. Smith

ST. PHILIP'S CALENDAR OF EVENTS 2006

St. Valentine Pot Luck	Feb. 18 th
Canoe Trip	May 22 nd
Yard & Rummage Sale	May 27 th
Pork & Corn Roast	Aug. 9 th
Turkey Supper	Sept. 20 th
Yard & Rummage Sale	Sept. 30 th
Christmas Tea	Nov. 25 th

Black River Accounting Services Robin Ferguson

Complete Bookkeeping Services
Financial Statements & Income Tax Returns with EFILE

1675 Old Milford Rd.
Milford, Ontario K0K 2P0

Phone 613-476-7731
Fax 613-476-8281

Seniors - need a ride to medical and other appointments?

Yes, there is a way for seniors to get a ride for medical appointments and essential shopping. Prince Edward Community Care's volunteer drivers will take eligible seniors to medical appointments anywhere they need to go, including to Belleville, Kingston or Toronto.

There is a small charge for each trip. Seniors must call 2 to 3 days in advance, same-day trips cannot be accommodated.

Call 476-7493 for further information.

www.communitycareforseniors.org