

Gillian Parker hosted our first meeting of the yer - Thursday, January 12th, at 1:30 p.m.

President Mary Creasy wished everyone a Happy New Year - starting it off with this thought - A New Broom Sweeps Clean - but it takes an Old One to get in the corners.

Barb Balsillie's thought - When there's no scarcity of money, it's a man's world. When money is scarce, it's a woman's world.

Secretary Marge Drury gave u the minutes of the previous meeting which were accepted as read. Roll Call was answered by nine members with their jokes and there were some good ones.

Card Secretary Marg Crouse sent 4 Thinking Of You cards, 2 Get Well and 3 Sympathy.

Treasurer Wilma Creasy handled our finances as capably as usual. Jean Burrows moved and Gillian seconded that we pay our bills. Carried. Our programs were filled in for the year and we also had some excellent suggestions for activities that we might like to participate in along the way.

President Mary closed with this illuminating ditty called The Farming Scene:

We the Willing, Led by the Unknowing
 Are doing the impossible, For the ungrateful
 We have done so much, For so long
 With so little, We are now qualified
 To do anything, for nothing

The ladies closed a delightful afternoon over a delicious lunch served by the hostess and thanked by Alice Miller.
