South Bay U.C.W. - Continued from page 2

100 people a Christmas Dinner and delivered 30 more. Cards were sent to those who are ill and also to those in nursing homes.

Belleville Presbyterial is being held on Wednesday, February 8th, but since that is the date of our meeting, we'll be unable to attend. We will send our dues of $1.25 per member.

Children's Aid sent a thank you for donating gifts for two children at Christmas.

Our President read an article from Ontario Farmer concerning the church at Port Hope - the rules for serving food at church are getting more stringent.

Our combined Church Service at South Bay on January 29th, will be at 9:30 a.m. as usual. A social time will follow with Rev. Jean showing her pictures from her trip to New Zealand.

Terry Kewley has volunteered to talk to the group about home safety at our Meeting on Wednesday, February 8th. Please note that he will start at 1:00 p.m. due to his bus schedule.

World Day of Prayer will be at South Bay Church on Friday, March 3rd, at 2:00 p.m. All are welcome and a social time will follow.

Our calendar of events was discussed and dates set. Inge Scott asked any knitters to make tiny bonnets and booties for preemie babies. Karen Guernsey read a story about a man missing his wife - due to her quilting. Programs were filled in up to and including June. Marge Drury, as usual, came up with some contests to make us use our brain power.

Barb Balsillie and Pat York served a delicious lunch and were thanked by Alice Miller
