South Bay U.C.W.

Members met at South Bay United Church Hall on Wednesday, May 10th, at 1:30 p.m. President Sandra Emlaw opened with the following: Two little girls were talking about what they would do when they grew up. The first one said she would marry a doctor so she could be ill for nothing. The second little girl thought for a moment and decided she'd marry a minister so she could be good for nothing.

Our theme hymn, purpose and Lord's prayer were repeated together. Skip McCormack's devotional was about wellness, something we're all concerned about. Jesus healed different people of different ills. It helps if you exercise faith, love, optimism, determination.

Twenty members and one visitor answered roll call by showing and telling about an interesting photo. Some were a beautiful sunset, an earlier sunrise service at Little Bluff, money shirt, greeting card, a town with the same name as one of our members.

Seventeen sick calls were made.

Treasurer Joyce Minaker reported our finances which are fairly healthy.

Picton United Church has invited our U.C.W. to come and hear guest speaker Myra McWilliams on Thursday, May 18th, at 2:00 p.m.

We are invited to Cherry Valley on Tuesday, June
