

The ladies met at the home of Brenda Linneman on Thursday, May 11th at 1:30 p.m. President Mary Creasy opened with this very good advice:

- If you want to be seen, stand up
- If you want to be heard, speak up.
- If you want to be appreciated, shut up.

Marge Drury's Thought For The Day told us of some of Dr. Mom's old time remedies. Thank goodness we don't use these today.

Secretary Marge read the minutes of the April Meeting which were approved. Eleven members answered roll call by telling of an embarrassing time in their life Many couldn't think of one. Is it because they have lead exemplary lives?

Card Secretary Marg Crouse sending a baby congratulations card. Treasurer Wilma Creasy reported our finances which are very good for a small group. Alice Miller moved and Marg Crouse seconded that we donate our usual $100.00 to Milford Fair. Carried.

For entertainment, Marge had a contest about baby parts and also challenged us to see how many advertising logos we could recognize.

Mary closed the Meeting with kid's versions of famous sayings which caused some laughs. Margaret read an article supposedly written by a man telling how helpful he was to his wife. Ha! The ladies then sampled Brenda's goodies - Yum! Yum! and had a delightful social time. Marge thanked our hostess - she's done quite a bit of this lately and is getting extremely good at it.
