South Bay U.C.W. - Continued from page 2

20th, at 7:30 p.m. to hear Kevin Hickling speak and enjoy a social time afterwards.

Skip moved and Marg Crouse seconded that we donate $500.00 to Bruce Frasier's two daughters who are going to Zambia through Quinte Youth for Christ. Passed.

Moved by Maureen Rudd and seconded by Eleanor Rorabeck that we donate $250.00 to Barb Guernsey who is once again participating in the Toronto walk to raise money to treat breast cancer. Carried.

Final plans were discussed for our Anniversary Supper on Wednesday, May 31st. We are also serving lunch after our Anniversary Service on June 4th, which was also arranged.

Joyce Minaker, who is President of the Prince Edward County Hospital Auxiliary, asked if our U.C.W. would like to cater lunch for the house tour guests on Saturday, June 17th. The ladies agreed to do this.

Marg Crouse read a heartwarming story about a little boy who took some lunch and went out to meet God. On the way, he saw an old man sitting all alone, so he stopped to say hello and shared his lunch with him. When he got home he told his mother he had lunch with God. When the old man went home, he told his wife he had shared God's lunch but he was much younger than he thought He would be.

Alice Miller's social time was some oral questions on commercials, words with CAN in each one and a riddle that required a one word answer.

Maureen Rudd and Nora Parker served a delicious lunch and were thanked by Irene Robb.
