South Bay U.C.W.

U.C.W. met as usual at South Bay United Church Hall on Wednesday, September 13th at 1:30 p.m.

President Sandra Emlaw opened with a word of advice concerning a church in England.

Please close the door to keep stray sheep from entering - the woolly kind of course.

Theme hymn, purpose and Lord's prayer followed.

Marge Drury' devotional was based on Romans Chapter 12, Verse 16 and John Chapter 15, Verse 7.

The Theme - From Sole to Soul. A

"Shoeman" (whose shoes were dusty) attended a church service and the man next to him thought him very careless to come this way. After conversation with him, his "soul" was touched.

Sixteen members answered roll call by telling how they spent their summer. Twenty-one sick calls were made.

Secretary Maureen Rudd read our June minutes which were approved.

Treasurer Joyce Minaker reported money received and spent. Since our finances are fairly healthy, the ladies are donating $5000.00 to the church, $50.00 for get jobs here and protection of our farm operations. There are many more areas that you can think of. After all you are paying these elected representatives to look after the interest of the County as well as your communities. In many instances narrow parochialism must give way to the greatest good for the County as a whole.

Engage the candidates in worthwhile discussions and put forward your ideas and suggestions. They will be unable to act on them all but remember the responsibility of Council is to lead us into the future, while at the same time, protect those things that make Prince Edward County the finest place to live in Ontario.
