ever materials are available to donate to the homeless and other needy groups.

So far this fall we have made about fifty quilts - distributed to the Salvation Army, Alternatives for Women besides the homeless. This also helps the environment as these materials will not be taken to the dump.

Right now our group is cutting out squares from crinoline, pants, shirts, overalls and any other materials and using discarded sheets and blankets for fillers. I must say when we get done, the quilts look quite presentable and some can even be classed as pretty.

We know our efforts are appreciated as we get letters thanking us for our lovely quilts. It also gives us the satisfaction of knowing "it's more blessed to give than to receive."
