Two elderly gentlemen met on the way to the funeral of one of their long-time buddies. The deceased was thought to have accumulated much wealth. On the way to the cemetery, one old fellow asked the other, "How much did he leave?". The other fellow replied, "All of it."

A

few peculiarities of the English language:

1. Two longest one-syllable words - screeched, strengths.
2. No word rhymes with - month, orange, silver, purple.
3. Dreamt is the only word that ends with "mt".
4. The only four words that end in "dous" - tremendous, horrendous, stupendous, hazardous.

News from Medicine - Smoking during pregnancy can harm the baby in ways that extend far beyond preterm delivery or low birth weight. It causes changes in brain development that can last a lifetime. Prenatal exposure to nicotine is known to alter areas of the brain critical to learning and memory. (Reader's Digest)

A couple was having some trouble, so they went to see a marriage counselor. After several visits, the counselor said he knew what the problem was. He stood up, went over to the woman, asked her to stand up and gave her a hug. He turned to the husband and said, "This is what your wife needs every day." The man thought for a moment and said, "Okay, what time do you want me to bring her in tomorrow?"

Some simple home remedies:

1. If you are choking on an ice cube, simply pour a cup of boiling water down your throat.
2. Avoid arguments with the Mrs. about lifting the toilet seat by using the sink.
3. For high blood pressure sufferers - simply cut yourself to bleed and reduce the pressure in your veins. Remember to use a timer.
4. If you have a bad cough, take a large dose of laxative. Then you'll be afraid to cough.
5. Drive carefully. It's not only cars that can be recalled by the maker.
6. If you lend somebody $20 and you never see that person again, it was probably worth it.

Tail Ender - I have never killed a man but I have read many obituaries with great pleasure.
