

The South Marysburgh Mirror

Published for and about local people and events

Third Kerosene Lamp Concert at Black Creek Chapel

"She may be only fifteen years old, tall and beautiful, but when she is burning up the boards step dancing, the other veteran musicians follow her lead! She is the boss on that stage," say Kerosene Lamp Concert Series producer Suzanne Pasternak about champion dancer Jenny Ashbury.

The 3rd Kerosene Lamp Concert featuring County musicians Mark Despault, Zeke Mazurek and Minerva's scene stealing step dancer Jenny Ashbury from Kingston will perform Saturday, November 3 at 8 p.m. at the Historic Black Creek Chapel in Black Creek.

few. He brings great warmth and humor to the stage as well as incredible musical talent.

Mark Despault is one of Canada's great music historians having researched and recorded the traditional lumber camp songs from Canada. "If it wasn't for musicians like Mark, this music would never be accessible to the public, just buried in some archive somewhere for scholars to look at a hundred years from now," says Suzanne. "He is also a first rate composer in his own right, and like Zeke, absolutely hysterically funny on stage."

Tickets are $20.00 and are available at Hicks General Store or by phoning Suzanne Pasternak at 613-476-6143.

Fiddler Zeke Mazurek has performed with the Canadian music elite in his career including Sylvia Tyson, Rita McNeil and Prairie Oyster to name just a

Milford Couple Weds

After completing their first summer season at the Milford bistro Chris & veronica were married in the County. The wedding day...Saturday, October 20th...was cool and gusty but fortunately the rain held off. Thirty-five quests gathered at the County Cider and watched as the happy couple was piped up through the vines to the patio overlooking Lake Ontario.

After the ceremony performed by South Bay's minister Jean Wilson, the quests were treated to a glass of sparkling cider and homemade pizzas.

Continued on page 6

Inside this Issue...

- |                                      |    |
|--------------------------------------|----|
| ● The Boston States                  | 5  |
| ● Volunteer                          | 7  |
| ● Druella Acantha Malvina            | 11 |
| ● Emergency Service Worker's Service | 13 |
| ● Life in the Past                   | 18 |
| ● The Last Word                      | 20 |