South Bay UCW

A delicious, bounteous pot luck lunch at South Bay United Church hall heralded the December 12th meeting for our UCW.

President Sandra Emlaw opened the meeting proper at 1:30 with a timely story of a man who retrieved old toys, fixed them and delivered them to needy children. Our purpose, theme hymn and Lord's prayer followed.

Rev. Jean's devotional was the lighting of candles to demonstrate light and darkness. Skip McCormack read a religious meaning of the Twelve Days of Christmas. Fourteen members reported making twelve sick calls. Secretary Carolyn Barne's Nov. minutes were read and approved.

Treasurer Joyce Minaker reported our finances are fairly healthy. It was moved to make donations to the following groups: Faith Orphan's Fund, Grannies for Mbuys, Picton food bank, Marysburgh Mirror, Pr. Ed. Co. Hospital foundation, Alternatives for Women, Hospice Prince Edward, Brad Grimmon, Maxwell.

The ladies moved to buy 3 large containers to keep food warm - Karen Guernsey to look after this. We are also going to purchase 4 doz. soup spoons.

Paul and Joyce Minaker volunteered to be responsible for lunch after our joint service at South Bay on Dec 30th.

The ladies moved to have a food sale for Maple in the County in March at Pat York's.

We received thank you letters for donations to
