

*Milford
Community
Friendship Circle*

Gillian Parker graciously opened her home to the circle ladies on Thur. May 1 at 1:30pm. Gillian amiably chaired the meeting in president Mary's absence. She also capably presented the Thought for the Day.

The April minutes were read and approved. Nine members answered roll call with suggestions for improving building in Milford for the celebration of Milford 200. Card secretary Margaret sent 2 get-well cards.

Treasurer Wilma very adroitly handled our finances and informed us of our income and expenses.

It was decided to start earlier in the season to make quilts for the homeless so they can get more use from them.

Auctioneer Alice encouraged the ladies to bid competitively on the curious prizes offered for sale. Our coffers benefited considerably from this function.

The ladies were served a delicious organic lunch from Gillian's own stocks and were thanked on behalf of the group by Barb.
