PEC Arts Council to Expand Programs
Thanks to OTF Grant

Picton – The Prince Edward County Arts Council (PECAC) shared plans of future arts programs and events with community stakeholders today, thanks to a $52,100 grant from the Ontario Trillium Foundation (OTF). Marty Halloran, a member from the Foundation, joined PECAC as they announced the exciting news as PECAC launched its 2008 Season at the new Books & Co. in Pic

“I am pleased to congratulate the Prince Edward County Arts Council on their success today,” said Leona Dombrowsky, MPP for Prince Edward-Hastings. “By supporting our artists and arts organizations we are also investing in the quality of life of our communities. Over the next two years, PECAC will use the funding to increase access and to develop new community arts and outreach initiatives and to better represent and promote the development of arts and culture in Prince Edward County.

“The OTF grant will assist PECAC in developing a
