

LIBRARY NOTES

Friends of the Ann Farwell Branch Library met on September 11th with a goal of attracting new members and the group was pleased with the turnout. Three new members came to the meeting and four more have since said they will be joining, so the numbers are growing! Thanks to all who have committed to becoming a "Friend".

The next meeting of the Friends is Wednesday, October 1st at 7pm at the library. Future meetings will be held on the first Wednesday of each month

Now open on PA Days. All branches of the County of Prince Edward Library will now be open on school Professional Activity days from 12 to 4pm. The next P.A. day is Monday, October 27th.

Library Sleepover! Yes, the first Great Girls Sleepover, for girls 7 to 12, will be held at the Ann Farwell branch on Sunday, October 26th, the night before the P.A. day. A maximum of 8 participants is allowed and 6 are already registered, so if you are interested, please contact the library.

Book Sale. We have a great selection of used books for sale from donations made to the branch recently. We also have videos and books on audiocassette. At .50 each or $2 a bag, they're a great deal. Come have a look!

Evening Book Club Seeking New Members. The library's evening book club has lost a few members lately and current members are hoping to recruit more readers. The club meets on the third Thursday evening of each month at 7pm at the library.

Anyone considering joining the book club for lively literary discussion is invited to drop by, and please bring any book titles you would like to suggest for reading by the group. For more information, contact Joan Laurie at 613-476-5310 or Barbara Wyatt at 613-476-5024.

Show us your decorated pumpkin! Decorate a pumpkin and bring in a photo of it. We'll display the photos in the library throughout the month of October and a draw will be held from all entries for a basket of goodies!

Welcome Back South Marysburgh students. Beginning October 9th, students from South Marysburgh school will once again be visiting the Ann Farwell branch library on Thursdays.
