

LIBRARY NOTES

Hello Everyone

I am so happy to be back and see everyone's smiling faces again. I am still getting back into the swing of things again but with the great job that Christine, Carolyn and Patti did while I was away, it has made the transition from stay-at-home mom to working mom much smoother. I just want to thank the girls for taken such great care of the branch in my absence.

I have planned some events for December, which, of course, all have to do with that impending day that everyone young and old gets excited for... CHRISTMAS!

December 3rd 7pm

The Friends of the Ann Farwell Branch are holding a meeting to discuss up-coming events and new ideas for fundraising. If you are interested in joining, please feel free to drop in or call me at 613-476-4130.

December 6th 10-3pm

The Friends of the Ann Farwell Branch are holding a bake and book sale in the library. All proceeds are to go towards purchases for the library to better serve all patrons wants and needs, so please come out and support your library.

December 16th 1-8pm
