

We Can Learn of Star and Equator, but not our Creator

Now I sit me down in school,
Where praying is against the rule,
For this great nation under God
Finds public mention of him odd.
Any prayer a class recites
Now violates the Bill of Rights.
And any time my head I bow
Becomes a federal matter now.
Teach us of stars and the equator,
But do not mention their creator.
Teach us of Russia, Mars and Sweden,
But do not mention Eve or Eden.
This law they made is quite precise,
To pray in school is never nice.
To pray now in a public hall
Upsets those with no God at all.
In silence we must meditate,
If God gets credit, that's just great.
The rule though, has one flaw in it,
You must be done in just one minute.
Each day starts with a minute's quiet,
And those who pray may surely try it.
If not, then Lord, this plea I make,
If I die in school, my soul you'll take.
