

Just Kidding - Continued from page 4

(Just kidding?)

For instance, should I happen to attend a council meeting, (which isn't too likely, Monica, so don't worry), I should be able now to stand up and ask the question 'Who has the brain? Does one of you have it, or did you file it in File 13, or did you loan it out to another municipality and forget where it is?'

(Just kidding!)

Well, now that I'm a senior-in-training - an elder with hopes one day of having the word 'respected' put in front of the word elder - I understand that when we reach this ripe old age called 'The Senior Years' we deserve to say almost anything we want to. Don't you agree? Haven't we earned the right? Well, I guess not if we make many comments like the ones above. I suppose that right comes with some responsibility.

Therefore, as a senior, I will try to hold my tongue, as my Mother told me to do, but that tongue is just so quick to say the wrong thing that I may slip up now and again...and again...and...

Just kidding.
