

Marge Crouse hosted our Thurs April 1st meeting at 1:30pm.

President Marg's opening wisdom - we usually make a mistake when we make an excuse.

Marg's Thought for the Day was a poem about why people go to church. Lots of fodder there to think about.

Secretary Marge read the minutes of our March meeting which were impeccable as usual. Our roll call was an annoying habit and ten people told their secrets. (Some claimed they didn't have any but I don't believe it). Some were - biting nails, resentful, don't suffer fools gladly, worry too much, impatient, interrupting people when they're talking.

Treasurer Wilma reported our finances which are fairly healthy thanks to our quilting. We are giving a donation to the 4H for doing our share of the trash bash. Ten people answered roll call with Show & Tell. Some were - Book of Robby Burns' poems, quilt, fossils from Morocco, Train the Brain book, book on housekeeping.

Marge entertained us with a contest and Margaret closed the meeting with three short readings after which she plied us with a delicious lunch, thanked by Marge.

For our program Barb Guernsey treated us with a very informative talk about the Relay for Life, the first to be held in Prince Edward County for survivors of cancer or anyone connected by this. It starts at 7pm on Friday June 11 at the Picton Fair grounds and continues till 7am on Sat. This demonstrates that cancer never sleeps. You might be interested to know that the band that Frank Artes is a member of, TimeLine Band will be supplying music that night. It can be an emotional time as luminaries are lit and names of survivors are listed. It costs $10 to register and any donations by sponsors are greatly appreciated. There is a tent city, food supplied by different sponsors, sports, bands, tai chi, and other preciated. There is a tent city, food supplied by different sponsors, sports, bands, tai chi, and other entertainments contributing to the atmosphere. It's a very casual affair and you may come and go with your schedule. Thank you very much, Barb, and good luck to you and the Black Creek Chicks.

After the collection was dedicated, we closed the meeting with our UCW prayer.

The ladies enjoyed a light lunch and a social time around the tables. Maureen thanked our hostesses Irene and Sandra.
