

Pancakes and Bingo – What’s Better for Milford’s Winter Carnival

Chowing down on the excellent pancakes at the pancake breakfast and trying to score extra sausages were SM residents (from the left) Bruce Dowdell, SM Rec Board Chair; Monica Alyea; and Sandra Em-law. Standing are PEC Mayor Steve Ferguson and former Rec Board member Elis Ziegler. – Mirror photo

Despite early February’s weird weather, the South Marysburgh Recreation Board pulled off another Milford Winter Carnival that packed fun and yum into the weekend.

Kicking off Friday night, February 3, the town hall was packed with bingo enthusiasts newbies and veterans. Saturday brought in SM residents to chow down on pancakes, syrup and sausages, orchestrated by the Scout Leaders Group.

Winter Carnival Bingo on Friday night was a big hit with calls for more bingo nights.

March Break Kid’s Pizza and Pavlova cooking class with Chef Mark Jermolow

Maple Madness 3-Course Dinner by J&W Farms at Walt’s Sugar Shack

ONLINE STORE NOW OPEN!

Order our chef curated meals and specialty items. Pick up or local delivery every Sunday!

For more information about this month’s events and online store, visit

Mark

JWFarms.ca

(613) 476-5959

Gus