

South Shore Joint Initiative Food and Wine Tasting Flashback at Lighthall Vineyards will Lift Spirits in February

The grape vines may be bedding down for the winter, but the South Shore Joint Initiative (SSJI) and Lighthall Vineyards aren't.

In what is being staged as a "drop-in food and wine tasting flashback, SSJI will be hosting a warm welcome from 1 to 5 p.m. on Thursday, February 25. Lighthouse is situated at 308 Lighthall Road, Milford.

Details will be posted on the SSJI website (ssji.ca) over the next few weeks or those interested can email Cheryl Anderson at Cheryl.Anderson@ssji.ca.

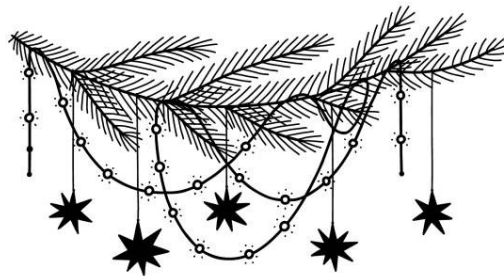

Stocking Stuffer Ideas from SSJI

If it's something out of the ordinary you're looking for as stocking stuffers, SSJI has some ideas for you. They'll be at the Busy Hands Artisan Market Saturday and Sunday, December 9 and 10 at the Highline Hall, Wellington Arena. You'll find a tree towel designed by a local artist, as well as the Species at Risk Guide, a must-have for budding naturalists.
