

A recommendation from our librarian, Kathy

-By Dorothy Speirs

As summer approaches, you may find your mind longing for a good, light, mystery read..... enter The Chet and Bernie Mystery Series by Spencer Quinn. Bernie Little runs the Little Detective Agency with his trusted partner, Chet, a canine of unknown lineage and breed, but of unquestionable and unfailing loyalty, determination, and smarts. Chet is the narrator of each story, describing his and Bernie's capers as only a sleuthing dog can do - with honesty, professionalism, and perhaps a bit of mischief and distraction as well. You will find yourself drawn to the lives of Chet and Bernie right from the start, from Bernie's human failings and heroism, to Chet's bravery and spot-on instincts. You will be laughing, sympathising, and nodding in agreement especially at Chet's all-too-familiar canine thoughts and antics. A must-read for dog lovers, or for anyone who just loves a good story well told. Pick up book 1 in the series at your local library branch today!

And in other library news, the Friends of the Ann Farwell Library will be holding a yard sale this summer at the library – lots of books, collectibles and other treasures. Watch this column and the County of Prince Edward Library website for the date.

And, a little later in the summer, the Friends will be at the Milford Fall Fair once again with a huge collection of books and our very popular Lego table for the kids. See you all there !
