Creating a Local Place Worth Caring About: Introducing the Black River Market

Within six months, maybe sooner, you may not recognize the Black Creek Cheese Company as you remember it. If Cliff Coulter's vision for the location becomes reality, the best is yet to come. He's planning to rekindle the past, yet better, by making it "a place that's worth caring about*". That is, a vibrant, comfortable, people-friendly location that people love and

Save the Date: May 10-12 for the Spring Birding Festival 2024: Empowering the Next Generation at Prince Edward Point Bird Observatory (PEPtBO)

PEPtBO would like to thank all members – new and returning – who joined during our February membership drive. We are delighted with the positive response and grateful for the support. There are more than birds on the horizon ... bird banding season opens April 10. PEPtBO hosts Steve Burrows at PEC Launch of A Nye of Pheasants, Saturday, May 18, 2024 at 2:30 PM. Details to follow.

Cliff Couture is promising deliciously refreshing gelato at his Black Creek Market but he's also got plans to evolve the former cheese factory into a year-round community hub where neighbours congregated to chat with neighbours. —Mirror photo

March Maple Madness Promises Sweet Treats for All Ages

For those who love March as the signal of spring and particularly the sweet treat of maple syrup and maple products, March has your name on it.

Many locations have events throughout the month but the blowout weekend for Maple in the County is Saturday and Sunday, March 23 and 24.
