

Notes from ... South Bay United Church

laying of the cornerstone at the opening ceremony, and the Church was dedicated the Carman M.E. Church in his honour.

Those comprising the Church Board when the Church was built were Messrs Isaac Collier, Robert Dulmage, Collingwood Hicks, Richard Whattam, Joseph Collier and George Whattam.

Other names which are worthy of mention and no doubt were members of the Building Committee were Matthew Ostrander, Millar Hicks, John Loney, Sr., John Duetta, Jacob Duetta, Mrs. Jane Farrington.

Owing to the fast-dwindling attendance, the church was forced to close its doors in October 1962 after faithfully serving the public for some forty-nine years. The last Sunday regular service was conducted by Rev. Fred Horton. Funeral rites for the late Mrs. Louise Hudgin were the last obsequies to be held from the church."

Enjoying themselves at the South Bay Recreation Committee's 3rd Annual "Meet and Greet" Picnic with a spin around on the tricycle are the Jaeger's from Milford, from the left Ella, Jim and Elvie. The girls are 6 and 8. (The family dog is enjoying the ride, too. It's 9!) The picnic featured complimentary hot dogs, hamburgers and ice cream...a fitting start to what promises to be a great summer.
