

In the Northwoods

Words and Music by Norton W. Kingsland.

Moderately

Piano introduction in 4/4 time, featuring a melody in the right hand and a bass line in the left hand.

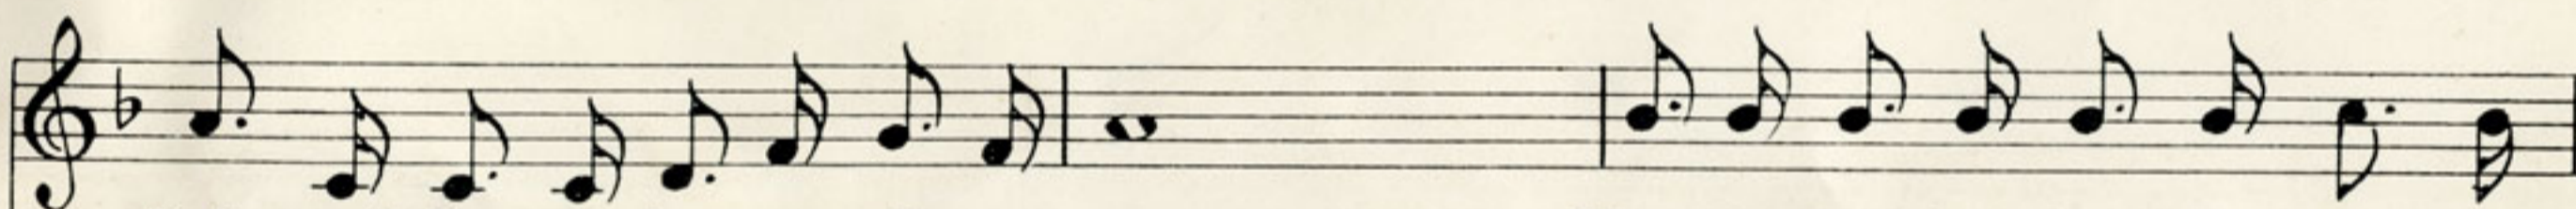

First vocal line with lyrics: "In the North-woods where I love to ram-ble, — In the win-ter time the air is bracing, — The"

In the North-woods where I love to ram-ble, —
In the win-ter time the air is bracing, — The Piano accompaniment for the first vocal line, including chords and bass line.

Second vocal line with lyrics: "Lake and for-est far as I can see, Up a-mong the pine trees and the scenery is so different and so grand, O-ver snow-y trails we'll soon be"

Lake and for-est far as I can see, Up a-mong the pine trees and the scenery is so different and so grand, O-ver snow-y trails we'll soon be

Piano accompaniment for the second vocal line, including chords and bass line.

Third vocal line with lyrics: "bram-ble, — Where the eye is clear and hearts are free, Oh! rac-ing — Thro' a bright and snow-y Fair-y land. Oh" bram-ble, — Where the eye is clear and hearts are free, Oh!

rac-ing — Thro' a bright and snow-y Fair-y land. Oh

Piano accompaniment for the third vocal line, including chords and bass line.

Copyright 1944, Age Publications Limited,
31 Willcocks Street, Toronto, Canada.
International Copyright secured.