

Grand River War Leaders

Grand River principal leaders of the warriors:

Ahyonwa'ehs (John Brant, 1794-1832), son of Joseph Brant
Billy Caldwell (Mother was Mohawk) Led the Western Nations
Captain Jacobs - With John Brant at Queenston
Captains William Johnson Kerr - Beaver Dams, Fort Niagara, Schlosser,
Black Rock, and Chippawa where he was prisoner.
Hoyatategh (Seneca)
Kagnetague (Seneca)
Kaneaheuntwaght
Kenwendeshon (Aaron Hill)
Karaghkohtye (David Davids)
Ounagechtai
Peter Powless- "Chief of Mohawks"
Shayendakhon
Skayentaghon (John Bearsfoot) – Wounded at Queenston Heights
Sir Johns (Onondaga war chief)
Ta-Kanentyne
Teyoninhokarawen (John Norton) - Wounded at Queenston Heights
Toowaghwenkaraghkwen (Thomas Davis)
Twalwa (Isaac Peters.)

CAYUGA War Leaders and Principal Warriors:

Attagwaracyon
Ayanete
Kayentatirhon
Kenntyoghkwanoron
Koteyea Might
Tekanyontonyon
Teharonghweandots
Thenyaweghs
Thenyawegh's Brother
Theantacutye

Buffalo Creek War Leaders