

PERSONALS

- Mrs. Roy Longboat, River Road, went to Buffalo on October 29 to stay with her daughter-in-law, Mrs. Wm. Roy Longboat Jr. during the absence of Roy Jr. who attended Princeton University, New Jersey, for an advanced course in Business Administration. Roy Jr. has been employed with Western Electric of Buffalo, N.Y. for 18 years and has completed 2 Buffalo seminars for the company. After a flight back to Buffalo last week-end he motored to the Reserve with Mrs. Longboat Sr.
- Mr. and Mrs. Walter Porter attended the Caledonia High School Commencement Exercises on Saturday Evening. Granddaughter Kathy Porter was in the graduating class. Kathy is presently attending MacMaster University, Hamilton.
- Mr. Harry Powless, R. R. 6, Hagersville, was the lucky winner of a "Pepsi-Cola Caps $1,000 cheque by saving the "Pepsi Poker Caps". We rejoice with Harry in his good luck.
- The first edition of the best-seller "Forbidden Voice" by Mrs. Alma Greene has been completely sold out and the book has been returned to England for a re-printing. Mrs. Greene's new book, "Tales and Legends of Yesteryears" will be released next year possibly by Easter. 1,000 copies of this book have already been sold.
- Miss Joan Lickers R.M. has returned from a stint at the Sioux Lookout Hospital, Northern Ontario. 'Sister' has accepted a position at the Brantford General Hospital.
- Dr. Daniel J. Smith has moved into his new home. It is possibly the first house on the Reserve with a sauna. This is a modification of the ancient Indian steam bath. Dr. Dan don't be surprised if you have a line-up at the sauna.
- Mrs. J. Wm. Hill has returned to S.S. No. 5, after a month's sick leave.
- Mrs. Norma Davis has returned home after surgery in the Brantford General Hospital.
- At a meeting of the chiefs of the Mohawk Nation on November 4, a telegram was dispatched to President Nixon protesting the Amchitka Nuclear test.
- Mrs. Edith Monture has returned home after a fortnight's visit with Mr. and Mrs. Russell Moses, Ottawa.
- Messrs. Oliver and David Smith went on a hunting expedition to Quebec last week. They were joined at Caughnawaga by Mr. Bill Meloche and party and travelled 100 miles north of Montreal. They never even saw a chipmunk but were rewarded with some good fishing away from civilization.
- Mr. John Miller, St. Johns, was the guest of honor at a birthday party last Friday evening arranged by the grandchildren. John has 35 grand children and 24 great grandchildren.
- Mrs. Susan Johnson, 95, has returned to her home in Ohsweken after spending 2 months in the Brantford General Hospital.