SIX NATIONS MIDGETS BEST

The Six Nations Arena was packed as hockey fans thronged together to see the International midget hockey team of Switzerland try to defeat our own Six Nations midget team, on Friday Jan. 18/74. The Switzerland team showed spirit and guts but they simply did not have the finesse to give the S.N. team a good go, so to speak. The final score speaks for itself as to who is the better team. Six Nations 10, Switzerland 3. Because of the international rules they were playing by, the S.N. team was forced to get only two penalties while the Swiss received three.

In the first period, goals were scored by - Switerland's Martin Stilli, assisted by Hanspeter Blum. Six Nations - Randy Martin scored twice both times assisted by Hugh Montour, Earl Reid once, assisted by Darryl Powless, Rocki Smith once assisted by Scoot Smith, Wayne Martin unassisted, and Brian Martin assisted by Hugh Montour.

In the second period Switzerland scored the first goal again. Nino Mardino was assisted on his goal by Peter Stilli. Six Nations scored twice this period. Kevin Miller was assisted by Les Porter and Ran. Martin assisted by Hugh Montour.

In the third period S.N. goals were scored by Scott Smith, assist Wayne Martin and Randy Martin scored their last goal assisted by Mike
