Runner-up - Shirley White - Oneida - 693.

The Six Nations Teams hosted the Oneida visitors at a supper at the Ohsweken Community Hall. Mr. George Beaver was master of ceremonies and the prizes were distributed to the winners.

LADIES HOCKEY:

Burlington Ladies hockey Team defeated Don Mills 4-2 in a game at Don Mills on Sunday. Congratulations to Bev Beaver on her "hat trick". Debbie Daniels got the other goal, while Kathy Hillis assisted on two goals.

MEN'S HOCKEY:-

The Six Nations Men's Hockey team are playing an exhibition game against the Simcoe Stars of the Simcoe Commercial League at Hagersville Arena this Thursday at 8:00 p.m.

POWLESS TAKES TROPHY:

Gaylord Powless won the Lockington Brothers Trophy as the Industrial Hockey League's scoring champion. A centre with the pennant-winning Massey-Verity team, Powless led the league in goals with 14 and in assists with 22. His 36-point total gave him eight points more than runner-up Andy Moran of Johnson's Wax.

SNOW SNAKE -

Perfect sunny weather greeted the Snowsnake players and onlookers at the Ava Golf Club, Brantford, on Sunday. We didn't count but the concourse must have numbered between 1,500 and 2,000 people. The Six Nations Team was the winner of the Long competition and also the short competition (with mudcats).

Members of the winning team were Clarence Jacobs and Seymour Johnson - throwers; Joseph Porter, Albert Porter and Albert Green - shiners.

The second team - Harvey Longboat and Peter Bomberry - throwers and shiners. American teams took part from Tonawanda, N.Y., Indian Hill and Newtown Cattaraugus, N.Y. and Onoville, Penn. - who travelled 300 miles.

The Six Nations teams will be playing at Rochester, N.Y., next weekend at the Winters Festival.
