

WEDDING BELLS

Bradley - Jamieson

Rev. Edward Kempling officiated at the marriage of Miss Nancy Lynn Jamieson and James Herbert Bradley at the Grand River United Church, Ohsweken, on Saturday, August 22nd, 1970. Mr. and Mrs. Robt. W. Jamieson, R. R. #1, Ohsweken are the bride's parents. The bridegroom is the son of Mr. and Mrs. Wm. Bradley, R. R. #6, Hagersville. The bride chose an Empire styled gown of silk organza over taffeta with trim of lace and seed pearls. The gown featured full length sleeves of organza and chapel train falling from the Empire waistline. She carried a cascade bouquet of American Beauty roses. Mr. Jamieson escorted his daughter down the aisle. Miss Patricia Jamieson was her sister's maid of honor in an Empire style floor-length gown of coral chantilly lace over taffeta. The front bodice featured a large chiffon bow and streamers. Similar styled downs of pale aqua were worn by the bridal attendants, Mrs. Richard Hill and the bride's sisters, Miss Dayna Jamieson and flower girl winsome Lauren Jamieson in miniature coral gown. All attendants carried nosegays of pink sweetheart roses and white carnations. Ring bearers for the double ring ceremony were Kim Jamieson, brother of the bride and Kenneth Bradley, the groom's brother. Guests were ushered by Robert and John Bradley, Jr. Mrs. Lillie Lickers, organist, provided the wedding music and accompanied soloist, Mrs. Ethel Hill. At a reception at the Hagersville community centre, the bridal party received 250 guests who attended from Buffalo, New York, Niagara Falls, N.Y., Hamilton, Hagersville and the local community. The bride's mother wore a gown of pink silk organza over taffeta. The groom's mother was attired in a medium blue lace over taffeta dress. An evening of dancing to the music of "Harvey and the Ramblers" concluded the wedding festivities. For travelling on a week's trip to places unknown, the bride changed to a sky blue dress with sleeveless white coat and accessories. The bride is a graduate of Fanshawe College, London and the groom graduated from Hagersville High and is employed at Livingston Industries, Hagersville. Mr. and Mrs. Bradley have taken up residence in the Ohsweken apartments.

* * * * *

Golden Wedding Reception

Mrs. James R. Martin, Buffalo, N.Y., and Mrs. Minter T. Martin, Ohsweken, were co-hostesses at a Golden Wedding Anniversary Reception and Dinner in honor of their parents, Mr. and Mrs. John W. Hill, Ohsweken, on August 15, 1970, at the Ohsweken Community Hall. Mina and John were married fifty years ago by the Rev. Mr. Paget at the Ohsweken parsonage. The attendants were Beulah and Onslow Johnson. Relatives and friends, numbering 100, greeted the still youthful appearing couple and offered congratulations and best wishes and partook of the delectable dinner. Mr. James R. Martin, the master of ceremonies called upon Rev. Dennis Hayden, who offered the blessing. Following the dinner, speakers were called upon and all spoke in glowing terms of the respect in which Mina and John are held. Speakers included Col. E. P. Randle Mount Pleasant, former Supt. of the Six Nations. The guests of honor were wished many more Happy Anniversaries by all.

* * * * *

WEDDING BELLS

D'Hondt - Moses

The marriage of Miss Patricia Ann Moses, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. James Moses, Vineland and Mr. Roger D'Hondt, Waterford, was solemnized at the Vineland United Church on August 22, 1970 with the rector, Rev. Mr. Manning officiating. The attendants were Mrs. Daniel Webster, sister of the bride as matron of honor and Alix Koropka, Waterford, was groomsmen. The flower girl was Ann Marie Webster and the soloist, Mrs. Albert Porter.

(cont'd)