And He Changeth the Times and the Seasons. Dan: 2:21

- in countless ways so that each of us will understand that what is happening around us is also happening to us. We change from a seed we grow: we flower: we wither. The sudden violence of the storm reminds us that even in the regularity of the seasons the unexpected can change the pace and direction of life. Never has here been such a teacher as God! So thorough, so direct, so kind!

Motivating his lessons to give joy as well as understanding! Over and over He tells us that only He is unchangeable and that all things progress towards eternity through a cycle of changes.

Children accept this as a part of the natural pattern, and so should we, as older we grow. But, we are prone to fret over it: we fight changes: let it strain relationships with families and friends. We cling to favorite customs. We become intolerant and unlovable, yet demand tolerance and love. May we all grow gracefully into old age!

PRAYER -

Assist us mercifully, O lord in these our prayers, that, among all the changes and chances of this mortal life, we may ever be defended by thy most gracious and ready help. Amen.
