

CARD OF THANKS

I wish to express my heartfelt thanks to all who sent cards and paid visits while I was a patient in the Brantford General Hospital. A special thank you to my family and to all the ministers who visited me.

Mr. Nathan Montour.

ANNOUNCEMENT

Space will be reserved in the next edition of Tekawennake (Dec. 10th) for any one wishing to send Christmas greetings to friends and relatives. The usual price $1 for 4 lines. Be sure the request is in by previous Sunday evening.

Many thanks is also extended to all contributors of news items to Tekawennake.

PERSONALS

Mr. & Mrs. John Burnham were honoured by family and friends at a house-warming party in their new home on Saturday evening November 7th.

The November monthly rally at Ohsweken Pentecostal Church was a very successful one under the direction of Pastor Gus Porter the Special speaker for the occasion was Rev. Danny Olsen of Sarnia, Ontario.

--Mr. Andrew C. Martin, R.R.2 Ohsweken has left to spend the winter in Palm Beach, Fla.

Mr. & Mrs. Hubert Martin (nee Essie Jamieson) are now residing in their new home, R.R.1 Ohsweken.

The families of newly-weds Mr. & Mrs. Glenn Hill (nee Frances Hill) entertained at a wedding dinner in their honour at the Ohsweken Community Hall on Friday evening, November 13th, Glenn is the son of Mr.

& Mrs. Truman Hill, R.R.6 Hagersville, and Frances is the Daughter of Mr. & Mrs. Roy Hill, Sour Springs. Mr. and Mrs. Hill were married at Situate, Rhode Island, on October 6, 1970. Over one hundred relatives and friends attended the wedding dinner and the couple received many lovely gifts. Mr. and Mrs. Hill are residing in Niagara Falls, Ontario.

Mr. and Mrs. Alex Staats, R.R.1 Wilsonville, have arrived at their winter haven in Florida.

Mr. Andrew Jamieson was the victim of a serious accident. While taking a sharpened coultter to replace on a tractor plow, he tripped and fell, striking his face on the coultter. The resultant gash required 50 stitches to close. He was released after treatment at the Brantford General Hospital.

Mrs. Caretha Clause mother of the famous missionary family was seriously injured recently in a bus accident in Oklahoma. Mrs. Clause is on the road to recovery from several broken ribs.

The November Church Rally at the Six Nations Pentecostal Church was very well attended and a very successful meeting was noted under the leadership of Rev Daniel Butler. The guest speaker was Rev Gus. Porter.

Rev. Melchi Henry, Medina, was the guest speaker at Special Meetings of the Buffalo, N.Y. Indian Church from Nov. 26th to 28th

Recent week-end visitors of John and Dorothy Wilson, R.R.6 Hagersville, were Mr. and Mrs. Levi Lankin (nee Evelyn Wilson), Sanborn, N.Y. and Mr. & Mrs. LeRoy Ferguson and Children, Terrence and Juliette, Niagara Falls, N.Y.