

INDIAN NEWS FROM HERE AND THERE

INDIAN POWER - con'd

Indian Power means a quiet social change from the way things are now. Indian Power does not mean anarchy, militancy, civil disobedience. It is not Communistic. It is not a plot from outside agitators, nor is it a movement to destroy American (and Canadian) values ... No one can help us as much as we can help ourselves!

Keswick, Ontario.

JASPER HILL
(Big White Owl)

* * * * *

SIX NATIONS SPORTS

SIX NATIONS FINALLY WINS

The Six Nations finally lived up to expectations Sunday, November 22nd to gain its first win of the season in the Brantford Senior Hockey League.

Last year's Ontario Indian champions upset Holiday Inn 4-2 in the opening game of a doubleheader before 240 fans at the civic centre.

Goalie Gil Martin, who stopped 26 shots, was outstanding for Six Nations. He was named winner of the Walters Credit Jewellers player-of-the-day award.

Six Nations scored two goals late in the third period to break a 2-2 tie. Wayne Tully converted Jack Hill's pass at 13:38 for the winning goal and Vic Porter insured it by firing the puck into an empty net with 38 seconds remaining after Holiday Inn had removed its gaolie for an extra attacker.

Al Lickers and Cliff Lickers scored the other Six Nations' goals. Tim Torti and Dick Ayres were the Holiday Inn marksmen.

* * * * *

SIX NATIONS WINS THREE OVER CAYUGA

Six Nations won three out of four games with Cayuga in minor hockey action Sunday Nov. 22nd, at the Waterford Arena.

Cayuga's only victory was a 3-2 decision in the novice game. Terry Smith got both Six Nations goals.

Marvin Powless and Raymond Hill shared the net-minding for Six Nations midgets in a 3-0 shutout. Paul Henhawk, John C. Hill and Terry General scored the goals.

Six Nations bantams won 6-2. Robert Powless and Wendell Martin scored two goals each and Brian Martin and Wayne Martin added singles.

Darrell Hill's two goals paved the peewees to a 4-2 win. Rocky Martin and Howard Bomberry added singles.

* * * * *

SIX NATIONS SPLIT GAMES

Six Nations teams won two and lost two games against Port Dover in minor hockey action in Port Dover on Friday Night, November 27th.

Terry General paced the midgets with two goals in their 4-3 victory. John C. Hill and Frank Davis added singles.

In the bantam contest, Six Nations won 3-2 on goals by Roger Martin, 2, and Robbie Powless.

Port Dover peewees won 5-3, Daryl Hill got two goals for the losers Ollie Hill added the single.

Six Nations novices were shut out 2-0.

* * * * *

SIX NATIONS TEAMS WIN TWO GAMES

Six Nations minor hockey teams won two games, tied one and lost one against Port Dover on Sunday November 29th.

--continued...