"This is creating a lot of interest," says Oliver Smith, secretary of the association. "I've had numerous requests already for entry forms from many cities in the U.S. and Canada. We are planning on making this an annual event and move it around the country each year."

The entry deadline is June 17. The first 150 entries will be accepted.

Invitations have been sent to George Armstrong of the Toronto Maple Leafs, Jim Neilson of the New York Rangers and to Tonto.

Man Beaten, Robbed

Seventeen-year-old Cameron Martin, of R 1 Scotland, was charged with robbery with violence and assault, when he was arrested following an all-night search in woods on the Six Nations Reserve on Sunday.

Martin was charged after an 81-year-old man, Joseph Powless, of R 6 Hagersville, was beaten and robbed in his home.

Mr. Powless was taken to the Brantford General Hospital, suffering from head lacerations. He is reported today to be in fairly good condition.
