

Six Nations Personals (continued)

Mrs. Ruth Hill is a patient in the Brantford General Hospital. Ruth is expected home this week. Get well quickly, Ruth, baseball's coming up!

Ronald Garlow, R.R. 2, Ohsweken, has successfully completed a 7 weeks course in Intermediate Electricity at Sir Sanford Fleming College of Applied Arts and Technology, Peterboro. Ronald is pursuing a course in electricity. With another year of apprenticeship and a further 7 weeks course next year, he becomes a full-fledged electrician.

Mrs. Emily Martin Rabbitoy, Hamilton, visited with relatives on the Reserve last weekend.

Mrs. Susan Douglas, R.R. 1 Ohsweken, returned last Thursday after visiting her nephew, Theodore General, in Cleveland, Ohio, and also Mr. & Mrs. Wilbur Hill in Buffalo, N.Y.

Mrs. Mitchell Green and Mrs. Emily Martin Rabbitoy were honoured at a joint birthday party last Sunday afternoon at the former's home, River Rd. Guests included Mr. & Mrs. John VanEvery, Mrs. Thos. Elliott and son Sandy Elliott and granddaughter Mary, Mrs. Vera Capton, sons Ivan, Stanley and baby Miriam, Miss Lillian Green, Caledonia, of baseball fame, Andrew Martin and Judy Davis Martin. Music was supplied by guitarist Russell Smith. A happy time was enjoyed by all. Belated birthday greetings to the ladies from Tekawennake.

Miss Marilyn Smith, daughter of Mr. & Mrs. Irvin Smith, Sour Springs, has left with friends for a two weeks vacation in Florida.

Mrs. S. A. Anderson returned on Monday after spending a month in Rochester, N.Y.

Mr. & Mrs. Graham Smith were visitors at Sour Springs last weekend.

Mrs. Elaine Anderson Boron and two sons, Michael and Garnet, of Rockcill, Maryland, are visiting at the home of Mr. & Mrs. S. A. Anderson.

About 40 members of the Friendship Club of Farrington Church, Brantford, last Monday visited the Mohawk Pottery, Sour Springs, to observe operations.

Mrs. Elda Smith will be demonstrating pottery at an Anglican Church Department in Ingersoll for a couple of days this week.

Happy Birthday Greetings are extended by a friend to Mrs. Angus (Florence) Martin on her birthday, April 27th.

Last Wednesday evening, April 16th., the Sour Springs Women's Institute were entertained by the Mount Pleasant Women's Institute at their Community Hall, with both Institutes providing the program. Gay Hill did a tap dance, Mrs. L. Lickers favoured with a piano solo and a vocal solo, and a social time was enjoyed. A bountiful lunch was served when the program adjourned.

COMING EVENTS

April 25 - Fri. 9 p.m. to 12:00, Teen Dance at Ohsweken Community Hall. Music by "The Revivals." Admission $1.00.

April 25 - May 4th. Special services at Ohsweken Baptist Church, 7:45 p.m.

April 26 - Saturday, 10 a.m. Bee for clean-up of yards at Chiefswood. Bring lunch.