Warriors Win Again

Warrior Bill Squires and Peterboro Merchants' Jack Armour sustained bloody noses when they started an Earol Flynn fencing duel with their lacrosse sticks last Friday night in the most exciting lacrosse game of this season at the Brantford Civic Centre. Both players were sent to their dressing rooms with match penalties which gave them a chance to recover from their wounds.

Brantford Warriors, down five goals at the end of the first period came back with a dramatic stretch drive to nip the Merchants 11-10.

It was their fourth consecutive victory and left them only two points behind Brooklin Redmen in the battle for first place. Floyd Harris' goal at 18:14 of the third period broke up a goaltenders' duel which had the 1,158 fans in an uproar through the exciting final minutes.

The game itself was a thriller as the Warriors steadily whittled away at Peterborough's lead. At one time in the first period they were down 6-0 and they still trailed 7-2 when the period ended.

Brantford coach Jim Squires removed goalie Ray (Wheels) Hill and put in Ron Thomas and from then on it was a netminders' duel between Thomas and Wayne Platt. Both made a number of sensational saves. Thomas was beaten on only three of the 29 shots Peterborough fired at him in the last two periods. "I don't blame Wheels so much for having an off night," Jim Squires said. "The whole team was off in that first period."

The Warriors scored six consecutive goals in the second period to earn an 8-8 tie. The team were still deadlocked 10-10, with less than two minutes to play when Rod Campbell grabbed a loose ball in front of the Brantford net and sprinted down the floor. It was a three-on-two break for the Warriors. Campbell carried in close, then flipped a pass to his left to Harris. Harris fired a low shot from the edge of the crease and it bounced past Platt.

It was the fourth goal of the game for Harris, who was the only Brantford player to get more than one goal. Singles went to Brian Cavan, Larry Green, Bill Squires, Jim Squires, Jack Hill, Gene Generoux and Charlie Thomas.

Ivan Thomas, nursing a back injury, was missing from the Warriors' lineup. The Warriors play in Huntsville Tuesday and will be at home Friday night to Bramalea Excelsiors.
