

AD

FOR SALE - New 7x9 aluminum sectional garage door with lights.
Phone 445-2374.

SIX NATIONS PERSONALS

Mr. & Mrs. Wm. Bradley, 2nd. line, celebrated their 25th. wedding anniversary at a luncheon at their home last Sunday. Many friends and relatives called to extend good wishes to Mr. & Mrs. Bradley.

It is with regret we learn that Mrs. Wm. Bernhardt R.R. 3 Hagersville, is in Hagersville West Haldiman Hospital and Mr. Huron Lickers, Ohsweken, has been removed to St. Joseph's Hospital, Brantford. We hope these folks will be around again soon.

Mr. & Mrs. Earl (Bud) Jamieson have taken up residence in the new brick dwelling at Grand River.

Mrs. S. A. Anderson returned from Rochester, N.Y. last Thursday. She was accompanied by Mr. & Mrs. Wm. Ryhan of Rochester.

Miss Vicky Lynn Porter spent the weekend with Crystal and Charlie Miller.

Rev. H. Thomas (Sonny Claus) and his wife Alfreda, directors of the American Indian Crusade Inc., have moved from Denver, Colo. to Phoenix, Ariz. in order to enroll their children in a Christian High School. Rev. Claus is the son of the late Huron Claus from Medina Corners and is a member of the Claus Indian family of Gospel Singers.

Chief Howard Skye, R.R. 2 Ohsweken, had 2 busloads of Grade VII students from North York, Toronto, visiting his home and inspecting his collection of Indian antiques and handicrafts. He also gave them a demonstration of the almost forgotten art of chipping flint to make arrow heads. Among Chief Skye's antiques is a cradle board belonging to Indian runner Tom Longboat.

Mr. Elliott Moses attended the Indian-Eskimo Conference last week at Ft. William, Ont,

Mrs. Pearl Pointe, a council member of the Indian Reserve at Nanaimo, B.C. was a visitor on the Six Nations Reserve last Thursday and attended the local council meeting. Mrs. Pointe was a representative to the National Council of Women Convention which was held in London, Ont. and was accompanied to the Reserve by Mrs. Chas. W. Peterson of London. Mrs. Pointe stated that Reserves in B.C. are starting to hum - now that women are on the councils.

Mr. & Mrs. Fred Myke and sons, Scotland, Ont. were guests of Mr. & Mrs. John Battice, R.R. 6 Hagersville, on Sunday.

Mrs. Elliott Moses and Mrs. Wilson (Dr. Sally Weaver's mother) left for a cruise tour last Saturday morning from Malton Airport. They went by jet to Bermuda where they boarded the ship Orsova for a stop at Nassau in the Bahamas and a cruise through the Caribbean Sea with stopping off places at various islands of the West Indies. Passing through the Panama Canal a stop will be made at Acapulco, famous Mexico seaside resort. Stops will also be made at Los Angeles, San Francisco and Vancouver from where they will jet back to Malton. A wonderful trip and bon voyage to these two ladies. Mr. Moses will keep the home fires burning.

Mr. & Mrs. Cameron Monture, Thornhill, Ont. returned to their home last weekend at R.R. 1 Hagersville. They also called on relatives.

Dennis & Kathie Wilson entertained parents Mr. & Mrs. John Wilson at Enzo's Steak House for dinner on Sunday in honour of their 35th. wedding anniversary.