What shall we do that we might work the works of God? John VI : 28

God is a kind Father. He sets us all in the places where He wishes us to be employed; and that employment is truly "our Father's business." He chooses work for every creature which will be delightful to them if they do it simply and humbly. He gives us always strength enough and sense enough for what He wants us to do; if we tire ourselves or puzzle ourselves, it is our own fault. And we may always be sure, whatever we are doing, that we cannot be pleasing Him, if we are not happy ourselves.

John Ruskin

Give me within the work which calls today,
To see Thy finger gently beckoning on;
So struggle grows to freedom, work to play,
And toils begun from Thee, to Thee are done.

Prayer

O Lord, help us not to depend upon ourselves but upon Thee. Make us aware of what is hindering and weakening us as we struggle to achieve. Enlighten us and grant us strength to effect Thy purposes. In Jesus' name. Amen.

Thought for the Day

With God's help that which seems to me to be impossible becomes possible.

Historical Notes - Ray Fadden

"The future destiny of the Indian can only be satisfactory and acceptable to the Indian people when it is planned and moulded by themselves. We must cease to be followers of a path placed before us by those who have little or no direct interest in our future welfare." - William Smith, Mohawk leader.
