

It says that those bands which want title to their land should be able to take it.

It says that if the provinces extend their services to Indians and other federal departments besides mine do likewise, the Department of Indian Affairs would be phased out of operation. After all, Indian Affairs has been attacked by everybody. Who could complain if the Government believed that the critics had meant what they said.

(Part 11 will appear in next week's edition)

Car Crash

A one-car crash on the Sour Springs Road at Barney Martin's Corner Saturday night injured a Six Nations man and his wife.

The driver was Marlene Hess of R 6 Hagersville, who was taken to hospital along with her husband, Keith. Both received multiple injuries when the car struck a tree, causing $1,000 damage.

Grand River U.C.W. Meeting

Mrs. Glen Porter, River Rd., opened her home for the November meeting of the Grand River U.C.W.

Mrs. Joyce Hill presided. The meeting was opened with the devotional led by Mrs. Kenneth Welch. Plans were completed for the Bazaar and Bake Sale which will be held on November 27, 1969.

At the conclusion of the meeting Mrs. Porter served lunch.

NOTICE

New telephone number for Johnson's Store, Ohsweken, 445-2122.

Telephones Removed

Public pay telephones have been removed from Johnson's store and Lady Willingdon Nursing Home. There remains the public pay phone in the Community Hall.

A public pay phone has also been placed at Ohsweken Corner, adjacent to the Grill. In the interest of the general public, children and others are warned against damage to these public telephones.

SIX NATIONS SPORTS

Six Nations Minor Hockey

Results, Friday, November 14, 1969, at Ayr

Novice	-	Six Nations	2	Ayr	2
Pee Wee	-	Six Nations	9	Ayr	1
Bantam	-	Six Nations	5	Ayr	3
Midget	-	Ayr	1	Six Nations	0

Thanks to all the parents who travelled to Ayr on Friday night to help cheer the boys on in all four hockey games. Darryl Hilled paced the Novice team with the only two goals against Ayr who managed to break even with two goals. Six Nations Pee Wee's ran away with their game. Brian Martin led the Pee Wee's with three goals;

(continued)