

CHECKING PLANS — Joseph Porter, supervisor of the restoration work at Chiefswood, checks blueprints of architect B. Napier Simpson Jr.'s drawings for the front of the house. The front entrance is that facing away from the present Highway 54, toward the Grand. It has been suggested that a cupola or belvedere was intended as a crowning feature of the house.