very few number of people, some not necessarily from this community with no accountability/transparency of funds involved. There is no opportunity to ask questions or dialogue on issues regarding different opinions. The question is what will be left as a future legacy for our children and grandchildren and the generations to come?

The SNFA will not, therefore, enter into an agreement with HDI. SNFA will however, honor the instructions given to them by the Confederacy Chiefs in February 2013 and will continue to farm the Burtch lands as per those instructions starting Monday May 6, 2013.

Sincerely,
