

STUDYING the rare 1804 Mohawk edition of St. John's Gospel presented to the Institute of Iroquoian Studies last night are, left to right, Walter Rutherford, acting chairman of the Institute, Dr. J. S. Hazen, local president of the Upper Canada Bible Society, Arleigh M. Hill, guest speaker, and two of the earliest members of the Institute, Mrs. Cameron P. Isaac and William Smith. — (Expositor Photo)