The following beautiful Thanksgiving prayer written in 1881 by Chief Da-yo-de-ka-ne is based upon a general opening ceremony at meetings held in the Onondaga Longhouse from time to time.

1. As ye will now listen, the fire keepers
Will now begin their address
We now greet each other for well being
And enjoyment of good health.

2. To thee, O earth; we now offer thanks,
And to all that it contains;
The streams and the fountains of waters,
Thy blessings which we receive.

3. To thee O maize; we now offer thanks,
O beans; we also thank thee;
For the Great Creator sent ye down here,
We are subsisting by thee.

To thee, O moon, we now offer thanks,
For giving light in the night;
For it, the Great Creator hath designed you
To give light in the night

4. To thee O herbs; we now offer thanks,
O trees we also thank thee;
For the Great Creator sent ye down here
Ye, are healing His people.

5. To our grandsires, we now offer thanks
For its the Great Creator
Had commanded ye to bring fresh showers
On the earth to bring forth fruits.

To thee, O sun, we now offer thanks,
For giving light to the world;
For it, the Great Creator has designed
To give light and heat to the earth.

We do now thank "Ye" the "Great Creator"
For messengers for doing
All their duty protecting His people,
All the day long and at night.
