

Aug 12+13
1989

Three Fires powwow revives

Brian Thompson, Expositor Staff

Edward Benton Benai, Grand Chief of the Three Fires Society, presents four eagle feathers to the Mississaugas of the New Credit community. The feathers represent wounded veterans, veterans still alive, women veterans and those currently serving their nation. The ceremony was part of the Three Fires Homecoming Powwow and Traditional Gathering held this weekend on the New Credit reserve. See also Page 9.