

Pageant winners selected

SEPT. 8/89

OHSWEKEN — Jerri

Jonathan captured the Miss Six Nations title Friday at the 122nd annual Six Nations Fall Fair.

The 17-year-old Hagersville Secondary School student is in her final year of high-school. She plans to become a chiropractor.

Miss Jonathan is no stranger to beauty pageants. She was a runner-up in the Miss Mini Six Nations competition several years ago.

Kammy Laforme, 13, was chose Miss Teen Six Nations. She has just started Grade 9 at Hagersville Secondary. She is a former Miss Mini Six Nations.

Theda Brant, 9, is this year's Miss Mini Six Nations. She is a student at Mohawk Immersion School.

The pageant capped off Kids Day at the fair which continues today and Sunday featuring harness races, chuckwagon races, a powwow and a demolition derby.