

Business complex:

Workmen from the Six Nations Reserve public works department are in the final stages of closing in the new Eagle's Nest Business Complex. The building is now under construction on the Glebe Property on Mohawk Street. The property is adjacent to the Woodland Indian Cultural Centre. When the project is completed, the $1,35,000 building will be owned by the Six Nations people.

NOV. 1989

Wayne Roper, Expositor Sta