A weird case of mistaken identity

Mr. Frank Henhawk, R.R. 1 Wilsonville, was recently the victim of mistaken identity. One of three teen-aged boys arrested for theft last week produced Frank's identification. He heard his name mentioned over the radio as one of those arrested.

He had previously lost his wallet containing all his identification papers. The matter was straightened out at court in Brantford when Mr. Henhawk soon appeared in order to avoid having a criminal record wrongfully placed against his name.

Indian Club of Buffalo

We, here on the Reserve, are interested in knowing what those away from home are doing and it was a pleasure to receive the supplement News-letter of the North American Indian Club of Buffalo. This club is a hive of activity. It comprises Indians from many regions living and working in the Buffalo area. They contribute to all phases of community life - economic, social, educational, athletic and spiritual.

Some of their activities are Tuesday night euchre club, Six Nations ladies Euchre Club, hockey - they sponsor hockey clubs for men and boys. Baseball - hard ball and soft ball leagues, which will commence in the spring. Bowling - the Red Jacket League is a mixed doubles league open to Indians and their spouses. They bowl at Connecticut Lanes on Friday nights at 9:30 p.m.

Lacrosse - the local entrant in the N.A.L.A. league is the Ft. Erie Hotel Hawks in which there are Six Nations players. They are presently preparing for the coming season. (Watch out Warriors). The Interdenominational Indian Church of Buffalo, where all are welcome, was founded by Rev. Edward S. Groat in 1960. They have purchased a building, renovated and furnished it. It is located at 316 Breckenridge St. Buffalo, N.Y. They have also purchased a bus to transport members without cars to and from church and Sunday school.

The Indian Club sponsors a Scholarship Fund. The North American Indian Club of Rochester N.Y. is a lively and growing concern. From a beginning of ten members, the club has sky-rocketed to its present membership of 400.

There is also the Indian Defence League of America which sponsors the yearly Border Crossing.

It is a regrettable fact that so many of our Indian leaders are compelled to reside off the Reserve. All Reserves are lacking in sufficient vital leadership. Canada bewails the brain drain. The Indians have always had it. Ed.
